NATIONAL GUARD IS CALLED TO RESTORE PEACE IN COLORADO

GREEN MOUNTAIN DAM SITE WAS SCENE OF BLOODY STRIKE CLASHES

GREEN MOUNTAIN DAM, Colo., Aug. 3.—(P)—Gov. Ralph L. Carr, en route here, today said he may take personal charge of efforts to end "a state insurrection" in which six men were wounded in two gun battles last night.

The governor at Glenwood Springs last night sent national guard troops to the scene after declaring a "state of insurrection" comparable to martial law throughout the strike area and left today for this construction town.

The work, a federal reclamation project, was struck July 12 by members of five unions which demanded that the contractor, Warner Bros. of Chicago, designate them as bargaining agents for the laborers.

A group of men, Wednesday, forced their way through picket lines and returned to work, backed by citizens from neighboring towns. Union supporters from Denver moved in last night and the opposing forces clashed.

Adjutant General Harold H. Richardson, meanwhile, assembled guardsmen at Kremmling, 18 miles west of the dam site for a second move on the same site. Machine guns tear gas guns and two tanks were included in the guard equipment.

Despite sporadic firing last night and this morning, both from within and without the project boundary, no new casualties were reported to Anderson.

List of Injured.

An unidentified CCC boy, grazed by a bullet. He refused to give his name to reporters.

Thomas Kelleher, about 35, Denver, shot through the left eye. Condition critical.

Art Morrow, 43, Denver, shot through the arm.

W. J. Blalock, 26, Denver, shot through the left shoulder.

George Judy, 17, Yuma, Ariz., grazed on the right hip by a bullet.

Art Kuhkman, Denver, shot in the leg.

Winfield Scott Divorce Trouble Finally Settled

FORT WORTH, Aug. 3.—(P)—Winfield Scott, wealthy Fort Worth rancher and property owner, today was granted a divorce for the first time in more than a year after paying off $45,000 in a divorce settlement, including back alimony and court costs.

Constable H. W. Rhodes, to whom Scott voluntarily surrendered late yesterday, said he had been instructed by District Judge Jack Thornton of Dallas and District Judge A. J. Power of Fort Worth to release Scott.

Scott was placed under arrest at Jackson, the twenty-sixth District Court here, where a pending divorce action had been transferred from Judge Thornton's court, and in 20 minutes Judge Power heard the case and granted a divorce to Mrs. Jessica Patterson Scott of Dallas.

Scott, who had since remarried on the basis of his contention he had obtained a Mexican divorce from Mrs. Jessica Patterson Scott, previously had filed and dismissed a divorce suit against her here. Judge Thornton held that the Mexican divorce was invalid and granted Mrs. Scott alimony of $480 a month while she was pending.

Also in divorce judgment was the stipulation for Scott to pay Mrs. Jessica Patterson Scott $45,000.

SENATOR HATCH PLANNING TO SEEK CURTAILMENT POLITICAL ACTIVITIES OF STATE WORKERS

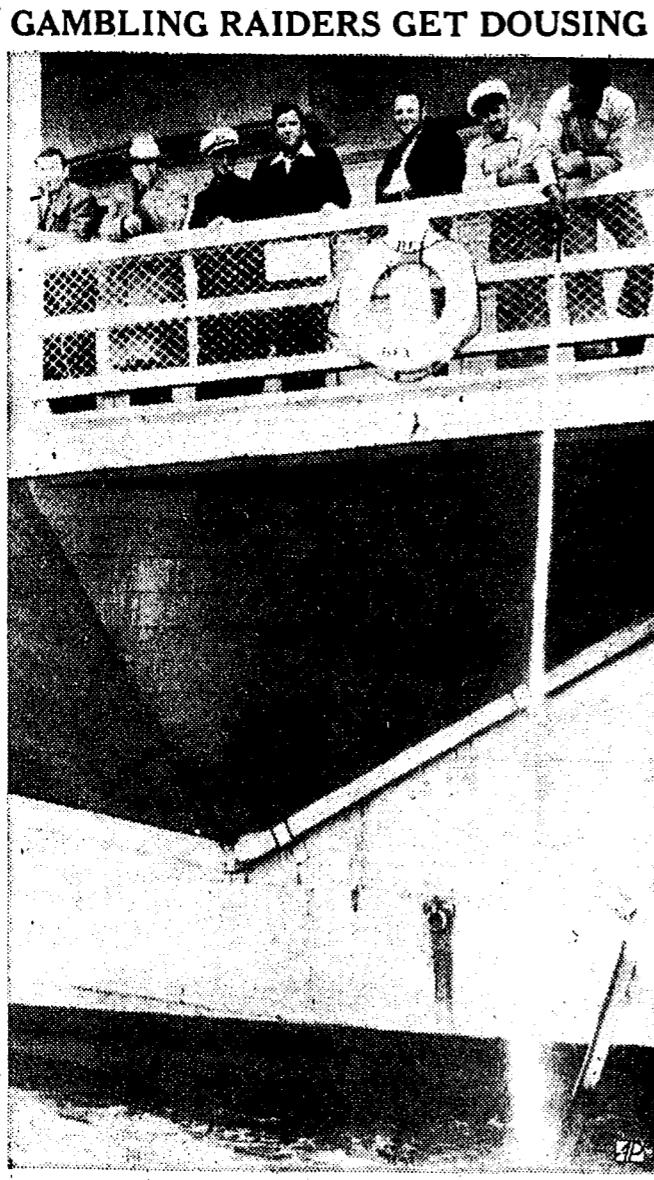

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(P)—Senator Hatch (D-N.M.), smiling because President Roosevelt signed his bill to curtail political activities of federal employees, said today he would try during next congressional session to extend the law to state workers.

Hatch is studying a suggestion advanced by Mr. Roosevelt yesterday that congress might have the power to prevent "pernicious political activities" by state and local employees who engage actively in federal election campaigns.

The New Mexico senator said congress certainly can enact legislation to forbid political activity by state workers who are paid in part from federal funds. These employees include many working for state road and unemployment compensation departments.

Senator Minton (D-Ind.), on the other hand, said there would be "substantial opposition" to extending the law to state employees.

Among other things, the Hatch measure forbids all federal em-

HOUSING BILL WAS KILLED BY COALITION IN HOUSE THURSDAY

LATEST REBUFF TO ADMINISTRATION TOPS OFF DEFEAT LENDING BILL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(P)—A house coalition of republicans and democrats today killed President Roosevelt's $800,000,000 housing bill for this session.

The latest rebuff to the administration topped off Tuesday's stunning defeat of the lending program. Today, as then, the house refused even to consider the legislation.

The vote was 190 to 170.

The housing bill defeated cleared away one more barrier to adjournment but the senate bill was faced with a maze of problems on the third deficiency bill.

The housing measure thus went the way of the $1,050,000 major lending measure—out the window at the hands of a militant democratic-republican coalition.

On the senate side of the capitol, a fight was brewing over whether to honor an administration request for a $110,000,000 loan fund to continue the bolstering farm prices.

The house economy bloc succeeded yesterday in keeping the money out of a $54,100,000 deficiency appropriations bill. Although the measure was cut $161,000 below the estimate of the white house budget bureau.

Around the $118,000,000 farm item, to replenish the cash of the Commodity Credit Corporation, centered possibly congress would be carried over into another week.

Secretary Wallace told reporters yesterday that unless the money is provided, corn prices would drop to 1932 levels, meat would be down, and prices of cotton, dairy products, wool and rye would be seriously affected.

A third row simmered in the house. Amendments to revise the wage-hour law can be called up for debate, but leaders said no decision had been reached on whether to include them in the pre-adjournment schedule. One set of the proposed changes, the President has said, would doom 20,000 of the country's lowest paid workers to unconsciously low wages.

The decision to give the housing bill a test was announced by Rep. Rayburn of Texas the democratic leader, just as the house quit last night. He told reporters later that despite the 193 to 166 defeat of the big lending measure, "the city fellows" wanted the housing vote.

Other sources added that the

BRITISH PARLIAMENT IN RECESS FOR TWO MONTHS AND SITUATION GRAVE

LONDON, Aug. 3.—(P)—Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax declared tonight Britain would be prepared to use her good offices "if and when they could usefully be employed" to mediate the Chinese-Japanese conflict.

"I shall be willing when the time comes," Taft said, "to give my consent to have my name designated as the first choice by candidates for delegates (to the National Republican Convention) throughout the state."

Taft told Eyrich his work as senator was "extremely interesting" and that he preferred it to any other job. He added, however, that he would not "run away from a harder job."

"Whether I am a candidate for any other office," he wrote, "is entirely up to the republicans of Ohio."

The "unpleasant job" ahead of the next president, he said, is such that no sensible man could be eager to assume it."

"Unless the whole present tendency of the government is redirected," he declared, "we cannot long maintain financial solvency of free enterprise or even individual liberty in the United States, but the leaders of the movement against new deal fascists must have the courage to incur the unlimited displeasure of every vested interest whose selfish purposes conflict with a radical policy of reform."

MORNING ROADSIDE DUEL FATAL TO TWO; WOMAN IS WOUNDED

BILL BRUNT, CHEROKEE COUNTY SHERIFF, FATALLY SHOT, KILLS ASSAILANT

RUSK, Cherokee County, Tex., Aug. 3.—(P)—A charge of murder was filed against a woman employee of a tavern after Bill Brunt, youthful Cherokee county sheriff, and Isaiah Creel, proprietor of the establishment, were slain in a roadside pistol fight before dawn today.

Deputy Sheriff Leon Halbert filed the complaint against Myrtle Stanley, about 25, who was quoted by County Attorney Ellis Lewis as saying the men killed each other in a pistol battle. Lewis said the woman told him the sheriff's office noted as an expert pistol shot, was slain after attempting several times to halt Creel's automobile on the Rusk-Jacksonville highway.

The Stanley woman, Lewis said, told him she and Creel were returning from Kilgore with a carload of beer when Brunt stopped them. Creel's tavern, the Rock Inn, is in Cherokee county, where sale of beer is prohibited under local option.

The woman was wounded in the leg, and was taken to a hospital at Jacksonville after the murder charge was filed. Her condition was not regarded as serious. She was the only witness to the shooting, Lewis said, and she gave him this account of the encounter:

She and Creel were driving south toward Rusk with a load of beer, which they had obtained in Kilgore. They met Brunt, who followed them, car, and then drove past them, blowing his siren.

This happened several times, then Brunt shot a front tire from the side of the road. Creel, she told the prosecutor, came out of his car shooting, the first bullet striking the 29-year-old officer in the head.

Fires After Being Shot.
Brunt fired several times as he fell, one bullet striking the woman.

GOVERNMENT OPENS DRIVE SMASH CRIME TRUST IN NATION

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(P)—The federal government today organized one of the biggest crime drives in its history—a co-ordinated campaign to smash "crime trusts" made up of loosely linked underworld mobs operating over the nation.

U. S. Attorney John T. Cahill, after a conference with FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover, said a national "clearing house of crime" would be set up here to make the drive effective.

The drive will be set in motion Monday with summoning of federal grand jury before which Cahill said would be placed a 500,000-word "encyclopedia of crime" compiled by federal agents.

Various national, state, and community associations will be summoned to the clearing house to help in the drive.

Shushan, former president of the clearing house, was such a close friend of Long that the political dictator named New Orleans' $4,000,000 airport after him. Shushan was brought to trial shortly after Long was shot to death in the state capital.

Following the trial, the government abandoned criminal income tax evasion charges against other Long henchmen.

One of these, Seymour Weiss, who rose from shoe clerk to become hotel magnate and one of Huey's most favored political helpers subsequently settled with the government, paying approximately $13,000 in penalties.

Weiss is now under federal indictment charging mail fraud in connection with the state university's purchase of equipment from a hotel the government says was owned by his school.

Shushan's defense attorney asserted at the trial that the money handed by Long to his organization was used for political—and therefore untaxable—purposes.

The government's claim against Shushan's "Cuse,"

PROBING REPORTS OF JURY TAMPERING IN INCOME TAX EVASION CHARGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(P)—The Maritime Commission announced today it had accepted a bid by the Consolidated Steel Corporation, Ltd., of Los Angeles, to construct four C-1 cargo vessels for $14,000,000.

The commission said, however, that a contract would not be formally awarded until disposal of a low bid by the Tampa (Fla.) shipbuilding and engineering company.

Officials added informally that the Los Angeles company would build the four vessels.

They explained that only a technically involved since under the law the low bid must be accepted or rejected formally before other contracts can be awarded.

Consolidated's bid was made on an adjusted price basis for full-sailing type, steam-propelled vessels.

The ships will be placed in service on the Pacific Argentine Baja line, which operates from Pacific Coast ports to the East coast of South America, Colombia, Venezuela and Trinidad by way of the Panama Canal.

FLOODING STREAMS MAY FORCE EASING TIENTSIN BLOCKADE

ANTI-BRITISH CAMPAIGN, HOWEVER, CONTINUES UNABATED NORTH CHINA

TIENTSIN, Aug. 3.—(P)—Flood waters of Hopeh province streams appeared likely today to accomplish what British protests have failed to do—force Japanese to ease the blockade of Tientsin's British and French concessions.

The debate shifted to the upper house, the attacks on the government's insistence that parliament recess as usual during August and September, a period which many believe will bring international tension.

In a vigorous protest against the recess, Liberal Lord David Lloyd George, chairman of all parties sharing the floor, indicated that the government must have the courage to incur the unlimited displeasure of every vested interest whose selfish purposes conflict with a radical policy of reform.

The foreign secretary said the government intended to protect British interests in China and to carry out its obligations to third powers.

The Tokyo formula agreed to by negotiations on the Tientsin dispute, Britain July 22 as a basis for peace, indicated no change of policy in the far East.

INDICTED FORMER LSU HEAD ALLOWED VISIT DAUGHTER

DR. JAMES M. SMITH PERMITTED TO SEE ILL WOMAN IN BATON ROUGE

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 1.—(P)—Dr. James Monroe Smith, multiply-indicted former president of Louisiana State University, was brought under guard today to the bedside of his daughter, who was critically ill.

The middle-aged Smith held for lack of more than $200,000 bail on charges ranging from swindling to forgery. A dead man's name, was rushed here from the federal jail in New Orleans.

His daughter, Mrs. Owen Walker Ware, whose husband is charged with assisting Smith when he disappeared from Baton Rouge June 25, developed blood poisoning after the birth of a son two weeks ago.

Officials said the request that the local doctor of philosophy be allowed to see his daughter came from the office of Governor E. K. Long.

Shortly before midnight U. S. Judge Wayne G. Bass gave permission for Smith's transfer with instructions that he must be returned to the federal jail by Thursday.

The 40th charge against Smith was the latest in a series. He was one of five persons indicted by the parish grand jury on charges of obtaining money from the State University under false pretenses.

Others named were Leon C. Weiss, New Orleans architect; Dr. Clarence A. Lovio, state senator and resigned president of the State Medical Society; George C. Griffin, drug store owner, and H. B. Andrews, manager of one of Griffin's five stores.

ONE LONE HERO WHO SAVED HIS NATION FOR RELIGION*

Dramatic Duel on Mt. Carmel Between Elijah and Priests of Baal — A Brilliant Queen's Animosity—Some Modern Facts About a Historic Spot

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

I have a friend in Palestine, who has herself known Elijah-like qualities in her steadfast, courageous nature. Miss E. Newton of Mount Carmel. Her spacious home there has been the peaceful retreat of many missionaries and British officers. Her charities to her neighbors, Arabs and Jews alike, and her public spirit, have made her the best-known character in central Palestine.

Now she has done a deed that will make her name honored for generations and centuries. For she has purchased the site of Elijah's contest with the priests of Baal, on the southern crest of Carmel, including the spring from which Elijah drew water in time of drought.

Suddenly, in the narrative, the uncouth Prophet Elijah appeared before the king, and predicted three years of drought. A messenger of such tidings, openly speaking in behalf of Jehovah, had to put himself beyond the reach of a ruthless king, and his still more vengeful wife. So Elijah fled to the great ravine of Cherith, which debouches on the Jordan Plain, where he was fed by ravens.

Confronting the King Suddenly Elijah came face to face with Ahab. "I know thou troublest Israel," exclaimed the monarch. Barrenly the prophet replied, "I have not troubled Israel, but thou." It seems as if Elijah took command of the situation, and gave orders to the king as to his course.

He directed Ahab to gather all Israel at Mount Carmel, and the four hundred and fifty priests of Baal, and the four hundred priests of Asherah, that the fundamental issue should be put to a test before all the people. The vivid recital, in the eighteenth chapter of First Kings, should be read: the thrillers of the duel between Jehovah and Baal, is too long to quote, too important to ignore.

This man, Elijah, the Tishbite, a sojourner in Gilead, emerges suddenly upon the scene. We are left in ignorance of his antecedents and background. What forces shaped him into his mould of audacious heroism?

We do not know. If we had the recipe or program we would turn it over to the Christian youth, especially the young preachers, of our own day. For another Elijah would be worth more to the country than carload lots of politicians and professional "experts." There were many men in Israel better educated than Elijah, and better equipped for public service by training and experience. His one great qualification was that he knew no man, and abominated intolerance of sin. He cared above all else, for the honor of Jehovah, and for His King-rights. The true prophet is a real radical, in that he deals with the root of things, which is religious.

Some of us believe that an Elijah of our times will yet appear. Many looked to the East for him, and had hopes of Kagawa, but he has bowed in the house of Japan's Hitler. Gandhi is too passive and provincial, though the real leader of India. Our North America has an abundance of good preachers and teachers and public speakers, but no Elijah. He may one day arise, in the pulpit, in the classroom, in the halls of legislation, in an editor's chair, in the labor movement, amongst the un-

BOSTON SPINSTER BEATEN FOR SECOND TIME WITHIN YEAR

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—(P)—For the second time in less than a year, Miss Minnie Vedenocki, 55, was in a Boston hospital today, victim of a vicious, mysterious beating.

She was found in her apartment yesterday, unconscious, beaten and naked, tied to her bed with curtains and sheets. She was taken to City Hospital, where her condition placed her on the danger list. Police said Miss Vedenocki's landlady, Mrs. Cecilia Shapiro, reported the beating apparently occurred last Friday, since that was the last time she was seen.

Miss Vedenocki, who never had a caller at her apartment in the eight years she has lived there, Mrs. Shapiro said, was similarly beaten about nine months ago, while walking near her apartment house. Her assailants never were captured. She told police then that two girls beat her but officers today said there was no connection between the assault and the one.

Mrs. Shapiro said the spinster made her living by doing house work until a year ago but since then had been unemployed.

Mrs. Pat Horn Was Honoree of Shower At Navarro Friday

Mrs. G. W. Harvard, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Horn, C. Cole, and Archie Horn, entertained with a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon, July 28, at Navarro, honoring Mrs. Pat Horn.

An arrangement of summer flowers in vases was used throughout the reception rooms. A green and yellow theme was carried out in decorating the dining table. The table was laid with a lace cloth over yellow and decorated with yellow tapers. It was centered with the three tiered bride's cake embossed with yellow and green motifs on a mirror-reflector edged with fern.

As the guests came in they were asked to register in the bride's book, presided over by Miss Dorothy Harvard and Geraldine March. A program of piano selections was given by Lena Rose and Dorothy Harvard, and Hazel Smith, and reading by Mary E. Collins.

Mrs. Collins presided over the "wishing well" and after the wishes were read, a large basket of gifts were brought in and placed before the honoree. After the gifts were passed for all to admire the honoree was asked to cut the bride's cake presided over by Mrs. Harvard. A refreshment plate of delicious punch and cake was served.

Mrs. Horn is the former Miss Martha Harvard. After a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Oliver Forbes, who lives in Bremen, Ill., she left in the morning of June 26 and were married that afternoon in Springfield, Mo. After a short honeymoon they are now at home in Navarro until their new home is erected in the near future.

Pat, as he is known to his friends, is an employee of the Gilard Oil Co.

Out of town guests attending this lovely entertainment included friends from Corsicana, Midland, Overton, Dawson and Houston.

ARMY AIR CORPS CELEBRATED 30TH ANNIVERSARY

MASS FLIGHTS SCHEDULED
THROUGHOUT NATION AS ANNIVERSARY STUNT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(P)—The army air corps celebrated its 30th birthday anniversary today with mass flights throughout the United States, defense exercises over the nation's waterways. And these evidences of aviation progress, in one generation, the air corps announced its second world record this week. "Flying fortress" yesterday left Wright field at Dayton, Ohio, and streaked 625 miles at 259,393 miles an hour carrying a load of 11,023 pounds. Earlier, a similar plane reached an altitude of 8,200 feet with a pay load of 11-1-2 tons. The record-breaking craft, being developed in the $300,000,000 air corps expansion program, bear little resemblance to the first American aircraft ever to leave a war department board accepted formally from Wilbur and Orville Wright 30 years ago.

It had made a successful trial flight from McFort Myer, across the Potomac from Washington, to Alexandria, Va., about five miles away, at a little more than 42 miles an hour. It returned at a little more than 47 miles an hour. Fast Pursuit Planes.

Today the army could point to pursuit planes that make nearly 10 times that speed.

Simultaneously, it could send out scores of airplanes over American cities and towns from nine air stations, with President Roosevelt giving the signal for their departure. The flights were listed from Langley Field, Hampton, Va.; Mitchell Field, N. Y.; Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La.; the air corps training center, Randolph Field, Texas; Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala.; Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill.; Scott Fields, Belleville, Ill., and Lowry Field, Denver.

The nation's defense organization, however, is not under way to purchase land for a camp at Granby, Mass., and we have also learned a committee has surveyed sites in Roxbury (a district of Boston) for such an establishment."

Two More Aviation Records Are Set

DAYTON, O., Aug. 2.—(P)—Two more international aviation records set by the army's air corps were announced today as an estimated 35,000 spectators thronged Wright Field here to get a first hand glimpse of the nation's mighty air armada.

Air corps officials who estimated the attendance while hundreds of others crowded to the field said the new records increased to six the number set this week as the army celebrated today the 30th anniversary of the purchase of the first military plane from the Wright brothers.

New records announced were: Closed course speed mark of 162.32 miles per hour over a 3,107-mile course between here and Milwaukee, Wis.; and Forts. Illinois, with a pay load of 4,400 pounds; and high altitude mark of 33,000 feet with a pay load of 11,000 pounds.

No comparative record was cited by the air corps for the speed mark, which was established in a Boeing B-15 super-flying fortress with a crew of seven captained by Caleb V. Haynes of Langley Field, Va., the plane landing at 6:22 a. m. today after starting the flight yesterday afternoon.

The altitude mark, the announcement said, exceeded the record of 30,551 feet established by Germany on June 4, 1938.

Droning motors of the huge army ships echoed throughout this Miami Valley area as the aviators staged spectacular formation flights while the visitors for the first time since Wright Field was open were allowed to inspect the field.

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 2.—(P)—Despite low ceiling and threatening weather 45 planes from three San Antonio airfields took off at 10 o'clock this morning and spread fan-shaped over cities in Central, North and East Texas in observance of the 30th anniversary of the air corps.

HOUSE REFUSED TO CONSIDER MEASURE PASSED BY SENATE

SOME MEMBERS DECLARE MEASURE KILLED FOR THIS SESSION BY ACTION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(P)—The administration's $1,950,000,000 lending bill was proclaimed "dead" for the session today after the house, by a stunning 193 to 166 vote, refused even to consider it.

Adjournment by Saturday night was the goal immediately announced by Majority Leader Rayburn.

Smiling ruefully, when asked whether a chance remained for enacting the big lending program, Rayburn said:

"Well, there's no way to get it up, so I presume it's dead."

Evidencing determination to quit as soon as possible, Rayburn said the house would take up tomorrow the session's final deficiency bill, always one of the last measures adjourned upon.

The house acted on a $1,950,000,000 version of the lending bill recommended to it by its banking committee. The senate passed yesterday another carrying authorizations for $1,615,000,000.

A coalition of Democrats and Republicans successfully fought adoption of a resolution setting aside procedure for formal consideration of the bill, already passed by the senate in a somewhat different form.

Refusal of the house to consider the measure came over vehement opposition of Majority Leader Rayburn (D-Tex.) against such arbitrary action. Whether the leadership would attempt to obtain consideration through other parliamentary tactics was not immediately known.

The shattering blow the administration suffered on the lending bill was expected to prove a severe discouragement to the house leadership in seeking to obtain action this session on the $800,000,000 housing bill, a companion measure, which likewise already has senate approval.

Rejection of the controversial legislation impelled several members to predict adjournment of congress would follow with a rush. Some expressed belief the session would wind up in two or three days. On the senate side, however, Majority Leader Barkley had said a short time earlier odds and ends of business might keep congress going until August 9.

Cotton Insurance
Endangered by Jam
Of Congress Closing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(P)—A legislative jam in the house made it doubtful today cotton crop insurance would be enacted at this session.

Representative Fulmer (D-S.C.) tried to call the measure up under unanimous consent yesterday. Representative Woolcott (R-Mich.) objected, declaring it was too important a bill to be disposed of that way.

Later, Fulmer told reporters he did not know whether there would be another chance before adjournment to call the bill up for action. He added, however, he would ask its consideration if he found chance.

A similar bill by Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) was passed by the senate recently after brief debate.

The crop insurance program, designed to protect farmers against crop hazards, now applies only to wheat. Fulmer urged the house the agriculture department believed "cotton would work better under the program than wheat."

House Buckles Down To Lending Program

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(P)—The house buckled down to work on the administration's lending program today, but even with passage possible by tomorrow midnight prospect of an early adjournment appeared to be dimming.

On the senate side, where a $1,615,000,000 lending bill was passed yesterday, Majority Leader Barkley said it seemed to him it would be impossible for congress to quit Saturday because of the difficulty of clearing up odds and ends of legislation.

In beginning work on the lending bill the house had first to decide whether to let it be brought up for actual consideration. The democratic-republican coalition opposing the measure was expected to make its first effort to defeat the bill on this question. Administration leaders expressed confidence, however, that move should be unsuccessful.

Some time after the lending legislation is disposed of, the house may take up its companion bill, the $800,000,000 housing measure.

The following session might be put over until next session because of fear of its advocates that the opposition has sufficient votes to defeat it.

The senate passed a sharply curtailed version of President Roosevelt's lending bill late yesterday. A smoothly-working combination of republicans and anti-new deal democrats repeatedly overrode the administration forces to batter down the lending total to $2,800,000,000 to $1,615,000,000.

The house leadership set midnight tomorrow as deadline for a final vote.

Repeated decisions to delay action on the housing bill, which would double the $800,000,000 borrowing power of the United States housing authority, indicated to some congressmen it would be solved for the session.

Although the housing bill already had been approved by the senate, some administration backers in the house said they were urging its advocates to let it lay over until the next session. They said chances of approval would be improved by the delay.

With the session obviously nearing an end, the capital continued to play its adjournment guessing game. Many predicted the legislature would be on their way home before next week. Some well-advised house leaders said it was "go or go."

The George Eliots Happy Parents Pretty Girl Born Saturday

Mrs. George Eliot and baby daughter, Harriet Ann, were taken from the hospital Tuesday afternoon to the home of Mrs. Eliot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young, 1718 West Second avenue.

Little Harriet Ann made her arrival at the hospital Saturday, July 29, at 5:45 a. m. and was a fine, seven pound, two ounce baby.

She had been born for her grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Eliot and Mrs. Young. Her little brother, two and one-half-year-old George Jr., who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Eliot at their home near Richland, is quite proud of his little sister, and is anxiously awaiting the time when she will be big enough to be his playmate.

Mrs. Eliot was formerly Miss Anna Mae Young, and her's and her husband's host of friends join in extending to them, and to the happy grandparents, their hearty congratulations. Harriet Ann is the only granddaughter of Mrs. Eliot and her family.

Mr. Eliot, who is employed in Beaumont at present was home over the week-end, and was here to welcome his little daughter upon her arrival.

The Kelly Field planes set out for Dallas and Fort Worth and intermediate cities and planned to return via Mineral Wells, Eastland, Brownwood, Brady and Kerrville, while Randolph Field's formation began its flight to Houston and Galveston.

L. A. WOODS TALKS TO LOCAL TEACHERS, SCHOOL TRUSTEES

STATE SCHOOL HEAD INTERPRETS RURAL AID LAW; MAKES COMPARISONS

L. A. Woods, state superintendent of education, and John W. Gunstream, deputy state superintendent, spoke at a meeting of Corsicana and Navarro county school teachers and trustees in the district courtroom Tuesday night and interpreted the complicated new rural aid law. The state law applies to more than 12,000 districts to all children of scholastic age for the biennium starting this year, and the money is to be applied to salary aid for teachers, transportation aid for school buses, and high school tuition aid for pupils whose grades are not taught at home.

County Superintendent J. C. Watson presided and made several announcements. He introduced Mr. Gunstream, who in turn presented Mr. Woods.

Mr. Woods contrasted the expenses of the J. S. Hogg regime of $20,000,000 with the present governmental expenses of more than $150,000,000. He called attention to the 500,000 scholastics during the Hogg regime and to the 1,500,000 today. The speaker said during the Hogg regime each scholastic was appropriated $4 for educational expenses while today the appropriation is $22 per scholastic. In the early days of Texas education the most was three million dollars, Mr. Woods said, while today the state alone pays more than 50 million dollars. During the Hogg regime there were no highways, while today the state spends 40 million dollars on highways.

Economy Plea Fails. A candidate who rides into office on the so-called "economy platform" is ignorant or liar, or would deliberately damage the state's highway and school systems," Mr. Woods declared.

The speaker traced the beginning of rural aid (equalization of educational facilities for rural schools) from the first appropriation of $500,000 in 1915 to the recent appropriation of more than 13 million dollars. Mr. Woods broke down the appropriation into its three general heads and showed how much more has been provided for the biennium than was provided for the previous biennium.

The United States constitution states that education must be disseminated if a representative form of government is to be efficient, but the burden of educating the people is left up to the several states," Mr. Woods declared. "Texas' educational system has been evolving for 100 years," he went on, "but little progress was made until about 1884."

District System. Mr. Woods said the district system (Texas has 7,000 districts)

Britain Plans Construction 180 More War Vessels

LONDON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Geoffrey Shakespeare, financial secretary of the admiralty, announced in the house of commons today Britain would add 180 vessels, mostly smaller craft such as trawlers, to the 1939 naval construction program.

The additions, he said, would include 107 trawlers for mine-sweeping and anti-submarine work.

The government also plans to construct 56 vessels of the whale packet type, some for service as patrol vessels and others for anti-submarine work.

Other new vessels would include ten big minewisers, six boom defense vessels and one cable ship. Shakespeare estimated cost of the new vessels at about 11,000,000 pounds (approximately $51,480,000).

ATTRACTIVE WATCHES BY DAICHES AWARDS FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Attractive watches will be presented to members of the two high school all-star teams who will close the annual school of the Texas High School Football Coaches association at Houston are now on display in the windows of Sam Daiches Jewelry company on North Beaton street.

The Corsicana firm has been the successful bidder to supply for trophies for the teams for two successive years. The fifty watches are 17-jewel Elgins, with specially designed wings attached to the bands. One of the wings is the center design and has the player's name and position engraved and the words "Texas Coaches Association" around the edges. On the opposite side of the watch, another wing has a large star for a centerpiece, and bears the year, and the words "All-Star Hi-School Football Game." The trophies are finished in yellow gold.

New Dry Goods Store Opens For Business Thursday, August 3

Renovation and remodeling has been completed on the new Kamen's dry goods store, located at 215 North Beaton street, and Thursday, August 3, has been set for the opening day.

The Corsican Kamen's store is one of the three Kamen stores serving Athens and Kerens.

The stock will include a general line of men's and women's ready to wear, piece goods, and shoes, it was stated today by Irving Kamen, manager.

It has been criticized because of the high administrative expense but the county unit is not in practice in Louisiana. He said the only way to work out a larger educational unit is to let the people consolidate with other districts.

"I do not object to consolidation as long as the people want to consolidate, but I do oppose forcing them to consolidate. As consolidation of districts goes on the units become larger, there are fewer teachers, fewer trustees, greater efficiency, and a larger program to meet the individual needs of the people," the state superintendent declared.

Mr. Woods said a farmer or mechanic has as much right to proper training in his vocation as a lawyer, doctor or teacher has in his so-called profession. In this connection the speaker said under the present educational set-up 10 per cent of the people get professional training and 90 per cent get vocational training. He added that the farmer or mechanic ought to have an education to protect themselves from selfish groups.

Must Expand. "If the farmers and mechanics are going to get the same education that the doctor, lawyer and teacher get, we must have larger units of educational facilities," Mr. Woods asserted.

The state superintendent said the rural aid law provides nine-month terms only for classified, affiliated, standardized and contract schools, and eight-month terms for all others. This discrimination, he said, is set up to give the other schools the incentive to get into the higher brackets.

The remainder of Mr. Woods' talk was devoted to interpretation of the new rural aid law, and he was assisted by Mr. Gunstream in answering questions asked by the schoolmen present.

Guffey had said he desired a full investigation.

Presidential Nomination. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Henry F. Grady, former dean of the College of Commerce of the University of California, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be assistant secretary of state in charge of the reciprocal trade agreements section.

Grady, whose appointment is subject to Senate confirmation, is now vice chairman of the United States tariff commission. In the state department, he would succeed Francis E. Sayre, recently named high commissioner to the Philippines.

ADJOURNMENT RUSH OPENS IN CONGRESS WITH DEATH LENDING

HOUSE DEFEAT OF ADMINISTRATION MEASURE STARTS RACE FOR QUITTING

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—The sudden death of the President's lending bill at the hands of house insurgents sent congress pell-mell into an adjournment rush today, with confused administration forces trying to stave off a final thrust at the wage-hour law.

At a week end windup of the seven months' session appeared certain, Rep. Rayburn of Texas, Democratic floor leader, said he expected "insistence from some quarters" for a house vote on wage-hour amendments. The administration is fighting most of these proposed changes.

While Roosevelt critics hailed the house refusal to debate the senate-approved lending measure as one of the greatest national defeats since collapse of the supreme court bill, the president calmly told reporters industry, the unemployed and the taxpayer would be damaged by the action.

He said taxpayers would have to pay a good many hundreds of millions of dollars because industry would not absorb as many relief workers as it would have under the lending program.

Offers No Criticism.

Making it clear that he was not criticizing the proposal for action he sought to make Mr. Roosevelt said those affected had a right to know where the responsibility lay.

He agreed there was no way of reviewing the legislation at this congressional session.

Both proponents and foes of the $800,000,000 housing bill were agreed too, that this companion piece to the lending measure was dead for this session. Opponents claimed even more votes against it than they held in defeat of the lending bill.

Pending decision on considering wage-hour amendments, house leaders called up a deficiency appropriation bill—always one of the last items of a session.

The only other pre-adjournment business would develop in event of agreement by a senate-house committee on changes in the social security law. The group has been deadlocked for weeks over differences in senate and house legislation.

Nearly Billion Has Been Appropriated

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Although the house killed the lending bill, federal ledgers disclosed today the present congress has authorized at least $900,000,000 for the very agencies involved in the program.

It was in an attempt to expand their existing authorizations over the next seven years that the administration sponsored the lending measure.

Here are the amounts shown in the budget as available for the fiscal year ending next June 30 compared with the extra amounts proposed by the President.

Probe of Mexican Oil Controversy Is Abandoned Senate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—The senate foreign relations committee killed today two resolutions for an investigation of conditions surrounding expropriation of American oil properties by Mexico.

Sen. Pittman (D-Nev) said the committee voted to withdraw its resolution, by Senator Bridges (R-N.Y.) and Neely (D-W.Va.) adversely for the following reasons:

"1. Neither of such resolutions was properly before this committee.

"2. There were no facts stated that justified making such an investigation."

Pittman said the motion for the adverse report was adopted unanimously by the committee virtually without discussion.

The resolution grew out of newspaper accounts Bridges read to the senate last week linking the name of Senator Guffey (D-Pa) with persons who negotiated sales of Mexican oil seized on American properties.

Guffey had said he desired a full investigation.

Presidental Nomination. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Henry F. Grady, former dean of the College of Commerce of the University of California, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be assistant secretary of state in charge of the reciprocal trade agreements section.

Grady, whose appointment is subject to Senate confirmation, is now vice chairman of the United States tariff commission. In the state department, he would succeed Francis E. Sayre, recently named high commissioner to the Philippines.

Dallas Y Boxers Outclassed Local Sluggers Monday

Corsicana YMCA boxers won only two fights of the twelve matches fought with a more experienced Dallas aggregation when they clashed for the first official fight night of the season in the gymnasium of the Y Monday night.

Dallas recorded eight technical knockouts and one decision to their credit. Two were judge as draws.

A large crowd witnessed the melee, and another fight is being planned to be held sometime during the middle of August with the East Texas boxing squad, it was stated by C. F. Broughton, Y physical director.

Melvin Costlow, weighing 100 pounds, of Corsicana, dropped the first fight on a technical knockout to Buddy Cole of Dallas, weighing 105 pounds, in the third round.

Jimmy Royston, of Dallas, was given a technical knockout over Bill Warrington, of Corsicana, when seconds stopped the fight in the third.

E. K. Lance, of Dallas, took a technical knockout over Roy Stewart, of Corsicana, in the second round of the 125 pound division.

The hardest fought battle of the evening was between Red Chapman, of Dallas, and J. E. Lawhorn, of Corsicana, which ended in a draw. The fight ended with both men drawing blood in the closing seconds of the final round.

Buddy Munster, of Dallas, won on technical knockout over Louis Mitchell, of Corsicana, in the third round.

In the 148 pound division, Floyd Williams, of Corsicana, suffered a technical knockout in the second round in the hands of Shumway.

COUNTRY BARBER.

The barber in the country is a chap that's good to know. If by chance you're fond of fishing he can tell you where to go. He knows when bass are striking and the kind of food they crave. And will tell you all about it while he's giving you a shave.

There's a mallard nicely mounted just above his looking glass. On the wall a hunter, pictured where a deer is apt to pass. And if you show the slightest sign of interest in such things, the barber's conversation will have hooves and horns and wings.

The barber in the country isn't primped in his shop. If he hears the wild geese honking then his clippers he will drop. And some day in the summer should on him you chance to call, he'll invite you up to see him and go shooting in the fall.

I like the city barber but his hands and cheeks are pale. And the news he has to offer as a rule is two days stale; But the little country barber has a host of joys to share. In the pleasant twenty minutes you are sitting in his chair.

CORSICANA, TEX., AUG. 4, 1939

VERDANT MILK

They are said to be serving green milk as a popular drink in Oklahoma. The color is inserted artificially, but perhaps the cows will learn the trick in time.

It isn't merely freakish. The idea is to make the milk richer in vitamins, and the green infusion is made from fresh, lush grass, of a special sort, six to eight inches high, which at that stage of growth is said to be especially rich in the little wonder-workers. The juice is chilled and mixed with the milk.

Nothing is said about the taste, at first mention the color idea doesn't seem very appealing. Still, people have long drunk greenish mint beverages, and probably we can learn to like this variation.

It does seem, though, as if the cows themselves could be trusted to extract and pass on for human use the vital contents of those grasses. If this sort of thing goes on, pretty soon bosky won't have a job. Dairymen will be making all our milk artificially. It would be a pity to have cows go obsolete along with the horses.

OKLAHOMA BOYS' STATE

A miniature state of Oklahoma will exist for eight days in August on the university campus at Norman when 450 high school boys convene for a period of citizenship training. The program is sponsored by the American Legion, assisted by civic clubs throughout the state and by the public affairs at the University.

The boys will divide into groups representing cities and counties of Oklahoma. Each group will elect its own local officials and all will elect a governor and other state officers. When organization is completed, the boys will proceed to carry on routine governmental activities, functioning according to the laws and procedure of the state of Oklahoma.

Leaders in state government and members of the University staff will be on hand as adult counselors.

The sponsoring organizations will pay the costs of the Boys' State and provide transportation for its citizens.

This is a fine way to introduce young people to responsibilities which will be theirs in a few years. It may be of as much value to adults in Oklahoma as to the boys immediately participating, since it will focus the attention of many parents and many communities on the technique and organization of government. Such programs, successfully carried out, furnish sound support for democracy.

The Journal of the American Medical Association reports that ice water with meals retards digestion only a few minutes and is not harmful. So now the millions of Americans who have been drinking ice water with meals all these years can go on doing so.

No wonder our complex civilization gets tangled up, when so little a thing as the zipper has 78 different patents on it.

Another precedent is broken: The President of the American Bar Association criticizes the Supreme Court.

Our greatest national product continues to be politics.

"BOTTLED SUNSHINE?"

not to give up what they have.

So what? We do not know clearly. But we Americans, with our faith in democracy, still have a feeling that the impending disaster might be avoided if it were possible to get past the autocratic heads of government and make a new deal with their people.

In such a deal we would be willing to redistribute a good deal of British and French property among the crowded and landless subjects of the autocrats.

PATRIOTIC TRAVEL

According to figures of the Department of Commerce Americans have spent $5,400,000,000 on overseas travel in twenty years, not counting travel to Canada and Mexico. This is five and one-half times as much as foreigners have spent in the same time on visits to the United States.

The figures for the next twenty years are likely to be quite different, as more foreigners visit us and more Americans stay in the Western Hemisphere. Americans still go to Europe and take world cruises, but no longer in such large numbers as formerly. There is a new travel trail into South America which citizens of the United States are following with increasing enthusiasm.

There is also a tremendous movement back and forth and up and down across our own country.

Americans go from Iowa to sail off the New England coast and from New England to ride and hike and camp on dude ranches in the West. Northerners go South and Southerners go North, and all are beginning to appreciate the varied interests and beauty of their own fair land.

Not to mention their appreciation of the freedom of movement allowed, the absence of customs officers and military guards at state and sectional lines.

Travel and renewed patriotism go hand in hand.

A TENOR AND AN ANTHEM.

It has long been known that The Star-Spangled Banner is a difficult song for the average citizen to sing, although large groups make a stirring thing of it with the aid of a good leader and a lively band.

Still, no one has considered the national anthem beyond the skill of a professional singer.

It comes, therefore, as a shock to read that a famous American-born tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company is about to file suit in a Federal District

FROZEN FOOD AND LOCKER PLANT TO BE ERECTED AT LULINGLULING FOUNDATION FARM REPRESENTATIVES VISITED LOCAL PLAN TUESDAY

Four Luling and San Antonio business men spent Tuesday in Corsicana inspecting Walker's Frozen Food and Locker System and plan to build one in Luling in the near future. They were Walter W. Cardwell, director of the state soil conservation service; manager of the Luling Foundation Farm; R. O. Atwater, Luling farm chief and accountant on the Luling Foundation Farm; Hal Bridges, editor of the Luling "Signal"; and C. L. Qualline, San Antonio refrigeration expert.

Tentative plans have been drawn for the Luling locker unit and the visitors studied the operation of the local plant. The Luling unit, they reported, will be built in co-operation with the Luling Foundation Farm and operated on a co-operative basis.

The Luling Foundation Farm was endowed in 1928 with a million dollars by Edgar B. Davis and is pioneering in the latest methods of three phases of farming—dairying, poultry-raising, and soil conservation. Davis purchased 1,200 acres just outside the Luling city limits in the San Marcos river bottoms and spent $250,000 equipping it with the latest and most scientific farm implements and buildings. He has turned over $750,000 to the Luling Foundation Farm to use to develop scientific methods and to disseminate them to surrounding farmers.

In the last five years the farm has been self-sustaining by the sale of fine stock, poultry and seed to farmers in surrounding communities. The pedigree stock, poultry, and seed are sold to the farmers at market prices. The farm has pioneered in the use and improvement of modern sites, in soil conservation methods, and in other phases of scientific farming.

It is one of the first farms to equip the poultry houses with lights to start the hens to laying earlier in the season, and it is one of the first to cure turkey meat by smoking it.

The farm employs 30 farm boys each year and when they have completed a year's work they are

Change in TPL Representatives.

John G. Hendricks has been assigned to Corsicana by the Texas Power and Light company as commercial representative. He succeeds Paul Cassidy who will be sent to the Temple district.

The song, he maintains, is a painful tonsil-twister. The singer dislikes not only its difficult range but also its "vindictive, unpoetic words" and its "Anacreontic origin."

The singer even goes so far as to challenge to a fight or a debate a certain band leader who has prepared a simpler version of the music.

All this is nearly as exciting as the reports—due any day—of sea monsters and other hot-weather phenomena. One suspects a close similarity between the tenor-and-anthem story and other silly-season tales.

Of course one would never suspect tenor, band leader or their agents of cooking up a merry little publicity stunt.

INCREASING CRIME

More federal convictions of criminals, larger Federal prison population and progress in the building program of the Federal Bureau of Prisons are announced in the current report of the Justice Department of the United States government. The convictions are considered evidence of good work on the part of federal attorneys and their assistants and the building advance as evidence of improved prison conditions—less over-crowding, more preparation for health and rehabilitation of prisoners, and so on.

The gains cited do not stand up so well as evidence of crime prevention and elimination of the bad social and economic conditions which are among the recognized causes of delinquency and crime. There is great need for intelligent attack on crime at its roots.

Americans go from Iowa to sail off the New England coast and from New England to ride and hike and camp on dude ranches in the West. Northerners go South and Southerners go North, and all are beginning to appreciate the varied interests and beauty of their own fair land.

It's about time for a song with the refrain, "They got to quit kickin' John Bull around."

The air is full of me-teors and other portents lately.

One Winning YMCA Fighter Was Omitted In Tuesday Report

C. F. Broughton, Y. M. C. A. physical director, announced today he had omitted the name of William Earl Patterson in reporting the Dallas-Corsicana Y. M. C. A. boxing card here Monday night, after Patterson had maneuvered on a well-deserved decision over a more experienced fighter, Albert Ramirez, of Dallas, in a three-round battle. He was one of the two Corsicana winners.

The farm employs 30 farm boys each year and when they have completed a year's work they are given scholarships to A. and M. College.

MAN ARRESTED NEAR RICHLAND EXPECTED FACE U. S. CHARGEROBBERY OF POSTOFFICE AT ALAMO, HIDALGO COUNTY, IS ALLEGED

A white man arrested near Richland Monday afternoon by Constable W. G. Ivey and State Highway Patrolman Hammatt Vance is expected to be charged in federal court Wednesday afternoon or Thursday with the robbery of the Alamo, Hidalgo county, Texas, post office, it was learned Wednesday.

Postal inspectors, county, precinct and state officers Wednesday were continuing their investigation. Postal Inspector R. R. Range said that $699.08 in stamps were found in a car had been identified as coming from the Alamo post office. About $86 in stamps lost Saturday night at Alamo have not been accounted for.

The accused man is also likely to face a number of state charges in El Paso, Dallas and possibly other points, officers indicated.

Preliminary hearing will probably be held in Dallas but the case is expected to be transferred to the Southern Texas district for trial.

The prisoner was reported taken from the local jail to Dallas, but reports from Dallas are that he is not there.

THIRD QUARTERLY CONFERENCE FIRST
METHODIST CHURCH

EXCELLENT REPORTS MADE TO DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT SORY LAST NIGHT

Rev. R. Otis Sory, district superintendent of the Corsicana District of Methodism, presided over the third quarterly conference of the First Methodist church in the educational building. Wednesday night he conducted a brief devotional prior to the business of the conference.

L. M. Morton was elected secretary; reports were made from various officers; Dr. F. E. Riley, the pastor, reported on the state of the church; W. H. Norwood, general Sunday school superintendent, on the Sunday school; W. B. Waddell, on the young people's work; Mrs. Clyde Gray, on the Woman's Missionary Society; S. Burdette, on the choir records; Boyce Martin, on church conferences, and T. J. Walton, on aid for the poor.

This meeting closed the work of the first three quarters of this church year. Dr. Riley's report showed much activity in the church, with all phases of church work carried out in a fine way; in fact, every report made was most encouraging and Rev. Mr. Sory took occasion to compliment First Church on its fine program and the way it had been carried out.

Upon nomination of the pastor W. H. Norwood was re-elected general Sunday school superintendent for his seventh year. Mr. Norwood nominated as his department superintendents, all of whom were re-elected, Miss Allen Caraway, children's division; Mr. R. N. Elliott, young people's division, and Boyce Martin, adult division.

The following were re-elected members of the board of Christian Education: Mrs. A. W. Rogers, Dr. H. B. Love, W. P. McCammon, W. B. Waddell, and Mrs. Mable Wilkinson. To this board will be added other members representing the Woman's Missionary Society, the Board of Stewards and the young people's department. Ex-officio members of the board are the pastor, Mr. Norwood, Miss Caraway, Mrs. Elliott and Mr. Martin. Boyce Martin was elected a

by Anne Adams

For childhood capers or "ice-cream-licker" times, could anything be prettier than this versatile Anne Adams pattern, 4201? Mother's fingers will fly nimbly over the straight princess seams, so perfect for a small, active body. For the pettified version, she'll probably run ribbon under the front panel, make the yoke and round collar of tiny eyelet embroidery or lace, and use ruffled edging. Either the flared or the puffed sleeves are sweet. Then, for school or romping days, she'll speedily, stitch up another frock in one fabric, or make a popular jumper style with gray buttons.

Pattern 4201 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 9 dress takes 2 1/4 yards, 35 inch fabric, 1/4 yard contrast and 1/4 yard lace edging; jumper takes 1 1/2 yards, 39 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

ANOTHER WIFE BOBS UP TO CLAIM BODY HOUSTON SUICIDE

ALABAMA WOMAN SAYS SHE IS LEGAL WIFE OF H. O. FLOYD

HOUSTON, Aug. 1.—(P)—Houston police received a telegram last night from an Alabama woman asserting she was the "legal wife" of H. O. Floyd, 45, who leaped to death from a police headquarters window Saturday after a lawless kiss.

Police Captain H. H. Simpson said the telegram signed "Mrs. Inez Dupree Floyd," sent from Bessemer, Ala., read: "Mrs. Inez Dupree Floyd, legal wife of Harry Q. Floyd, is coming to claim body and effects."

Mrs. Reba Lee Floyd, who at Mrs. Reba Lee Wilkes, was a five-time beauty contest winner in Memphis, Tenn., displayed to officers a marriage certificate showing she was wed to Floyd last May in Floyd County, Tenn.

Floyd plunged to his death Saturday from a window in the identification bureau of the fifth floor of police headquarters here. At the moment charges of forgery against him and Mrs. Reba Lee Floyd were being filed.

Police said Mrs. Reba Lee Floyd, released on bond Saturday night, had not called to view the body, and had given them no instructions as to funeral arrangements.

E. E. Whittington, police identification expert, said Floyd told him, a few minutes before he jumped, he was paroled from the Illinois state penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., after serving eight months of a ten-year sentence for embezzlement.

"Those fingerprints will show I have been in trouble before and my wife will be sorry when she finds it out," Floyd remarked.

Officials of the funeral home holding Floyd's body, said they would await the arrival of Mrs. Inez Dupree Floyd before its disposition. Mrs. Inez Dupree Floyd's home is at Easley, Ala., a suburb of Birmingham.

TEXAS HIGHWAY PATROLMAN WINS $1200 FELLOWSHIP

AUSTIN, Aug. 3.—(P)—J. B. Carlisle, a state highway patrolman stationed at San Angelo, was announced today as a winner of a $1,200 fellowship for study of accident prevention and traffic control at the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University.

He is one of 12 state policemen over the nation to win the honor, provided by the Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., safety award.

Carlisle, 32, a member of the Public safety department since 1935, is a graduate of East Texas State Normal College and the University of Texas. At both schools he specialized in government and English and was principal and teacher in Naples high school before he joined the state police force.

He completed high school work at Dublin and attended the air corps training center at Randolph Field, Tex.

FORMER OKLAHOMA JURIST SAYS LOVE LIFE WAS COSTLY

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(P)—The "booms-a-daly," and the "castle rock and roll," which has on phase called "kicking the bucket" were the talk of the town today.

Two new dances which the Dancing Masters of America hope will supersede jitterbug antics in the nation's ballrooms were demonstrated yesterday at their convention.

Irene Castle, who devised and introduced the "Castle rock and roll," said it had the lilting quality of a polka—but its steps are not altogether gentle.

The 69-year-old ex-jurist is fighting the suit of Madeline Braniff Branson, his one-time stenographer, now 47, who seeks validation of their 1930 marriage in New York and $500 a month separate maintenance. She asserted Branson was worth $250,000.

Acting as his own attorney, Branson contends the marriage was illegal because it took place within six months after his first wife obtained a divorce.

Delivering an autobiography from the witness stand yesterday, Branson asserted a $350,000 fortune made in the Texas oil fields had shrunk to but $700 in bank accounts and land of only potential value.

His wooing of Madeline before and after the marriage was on a lavish scale, Branson testified, and dry wells in Texas added to his financial difficulties.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartley, Rice; four brothers, L. D., Leroy, C. C. and D. H. Hartley, all of Rice; six sisters, Mrs. W. R. Wright; Mrs. Mrs. Joe Smith, Ennis; Mrs. Elmer Perry, Rice; Mrs. Virgil Atchley, Rice; Mrs. Clifton Breeding, Pfleiderer, and other relatives.

McCammon & Hodges had charge of the arrangements.

JIM HARTLEY DIED IN RICE TUESDAY; BURIAL WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Jim Hartley age 37 years, who died at his home in Rice Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, were held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The rites were conducted by Rev. R. D. Briggs, Interment will be in the Rice cemetery.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartley, Rice; four brothers, L. D., Leroy, C. C. and D. H. Hartley, all of Rice; six sisters, Mrs. W. R. Wright; Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Joe Smith, Ennis; Mrs. Elmer Perry, Rice; Mrs. Clifton Breeding, Pfleiderer, and other relatives.

Twenty-one planes from Randolph Field, Kelly Field and Brooks Field which flew over Texas yesterday as part of a nationwide observance of the 30th anniversary of the air corps returned to their bases here without incident.

Twenty-one planes went from Kelly Field to Dallas. Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel for a few minutes commanded the flight when he asked that a plane dip closer to the Austin airport so he could look at the air armada and allow governors to "shoot" the planes.

Gov. O'Daniel asked by radio from the Austin airport for the planes to come closer. Col. A. E. Lohman, assistant commandant of the advanced flying school at Kelly Field and commander of the flight, gave the signal to the other planes and the planes swooped down within about 500 feet of the airfield after circling the city once, then winging on northward to Temple, Waco, Hillsboro, Fort Worth, Dallas, to land at Hensley Field.

A similar flight of 18 planes left Randolph Field for Houston and Galveston and return and a six-plane formation from Brooks Field flew over the nearby communities of San Antonio.

DALLAS WOMAN WAS KILLED IN COLORADO AUTOMOBILE CRASH

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 3.—(P)—Mrs. Florence Trate of Dallas was killed in a head-on automobile collision that left three other persons in a critical condition at a hospital here today.

Two other persons were less seriously injured in the crash two miles west of Greenhorn, Colo., late last night. The injured:

Paul H. Keatung, instructor at Colorado School of Mines, Golden, skull fracture.

Leo Daud, 24, Crow, Colo., back injury and head cuts.

Glen Prior, 15, Huerfano, Colo., dangerous laceration.

Robert Campbell, 16, Crow, broken arm.

Mary Vuettich, Huerfano, cuts and bruises.

Undersheriff Earl Dunlap said Mrs. Trate suffered a broken neck when Keatung's automobile met Campbell's machine on a curve.

Mrs. Trate and Keatung were driving to Pueblo from Rye, Colo., 40 miles away, en route to Durango, where they were guests at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Simpson of Pueblo. The Dallas woman was a sister of Mrs. Simpson.

EXPROPRIATION OF AMERICAN PROPERTY MEXICO IS PLANNED

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—(P)—A movement for expropriation of the huge United States-owned El Potrero sugar property in Vera Cruz state was said to be under way, but officials declined to give confirmation.

Farm workers on the Potrero plantation were reported to have completed filling applications for expropriation of the entire 8,750 acres remaining on the property which once covered 11,225 acres.

Some 2,600 acres of the plantation was expropriated about 15 years ago and delivered to peasants in 1938 after a long court fight. The company had a claim for more than $500,000 pending with the Mexican-American claims commission because of the expropriation, which was in line with the Mexican land distribution program.

The remaining El Potrero is a Mexican corporation, but all of its stock is owned by the Potrero Sugar company of New York.

Under President Lazaro Cardenas the Mexican government—which on March 18, 1938, expropriated the $400,000,000 foreign oil industry—has shown an increasing interest in sugar production and in regulation of various basic industries.

REPRESENTATIVE OF VETERANS SERVICE BE HERE ON AUGUST 12TH

E. R. Fenton, representative of the Veterans Service office, will be in Corsicana, Saturday, August 12, at the court house to assist war veterans and their dependents with their problems in connection with claims growing out of war service. Andrew G. Steele, local American Legion leader, has been advised.

Widows and Gold Star mothers are urged to take up problems with Mr. Fenton as recent legislation has liberalized laws pertaining to them.

OWNER OF GAMBLING BOAT DEFIAINT AND REFUSES TO QUIT

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Aug. 3.—(P)—The owner and crew of a luxuriously gambling boat played a game not on the Casino list today—waiting game in bobbing boats.

In poker-faced patience, Tony Stralla and 200-odd patrons lounged about the floating Casino, the Tex.

And just beyond reach of hoses playing from the ship, equally patient—but in some instances, at least—somewhat unsettled from the tossing of the waves, waited the deputies with warrants charging conspiracy to violate gambling laws.

HEALTH, BEAUTY AND POISE

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY

By VERONICA DENGEL

FROM THE MAIL BAG
C. T. writes to ask: "What cures bad breath if the teeth are all right?"

Bad breath may be due to one or more causes, and it would be well to check on these one by one. First, are your eliminations up-to-date? By this I mean that you should have two thorough bowel movements daily. Anything less than this is almost always constipation to some degree; and of Veronica Dengel course, if the products of fermentation and putrefaction are allowed to remain in the colon there will be a bad breath as well as a bad taste. It frequently happens that body odors are due to this cause, too. The poisons are simply trying to eliminate themselves through the other channels, namely, the lungs and the skin, which is then.

Then, it is possible that your tonsils may be spongey and are retaining food wastes. In this case, it would be well to go on a thorough body cleansing regime, using only the acid fruits and fresh vegetables, with nuts and soy beans for protein, for a period of two or three weeks. Use no milk during this time because in some people the milk is mucous-forming and for the cleansing period the other proteins will be sufficient.

Then, are you sure your teeth are thoroughly cleaned after each meal? You'd be shocked with me when I say this, but it is surprising how little time is spent cleaning their teeth by other fastidious persons. Actually, if we were to time them, one minute

REGULATION SOUGHT FEDERAL JOBHOLDERS IN POLITICAL FIELD

IF PROPERLY ADMINISTERED
IT WILL SERVE PURPOSE,
ROOSEVELT DECLARES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(P)—President Roosevelt signed into law today the Hatch bill regulating political activity of most federal employees but told congress emphatically the American people would not stand for its enforcement as a "gag act."

The chief executive said he was taking the unusual action of sending his position because there had been "so many misrepresentations" of his attitude, which he set out in these words:

"It is because for so many years I have striven in public life and in private life for decency in political campaigns, both on the part of government servants of candidates of all persuasions and organizations and of individuals that I regard this new legislation as at least a step in the right direction."

Mr. Roosevelt recommended congress study next session extension of the measure to cover state and local government employees "who participate actively in federal elections." The bill, which should have been taken, he said, with a view to broadening the act before the 1940 election.

Application Main Thing

Regarding application of the law, one of the broadest pieces of political regulatory legislation ever enacted which was sponsored by Senator Hatch (D-N.M.), Mr. Roosevelt said "if the bill is administered according to its spirit, it will be in the future administered without abuse, oppression or groundless fear, it will serve the purpose intended by the congress."

He enumerated a long list of actions which federal employees could, in his opinion, take without jeopardizing their positions under the measure, including voluntary political contributions, speeches and attendance at meetings.

Noting policy-making federal officials and members of congress are exempted, the president said it would hardly be fair to permit these groups or newspapers, magazines or radio broadcasters to make political attacks on persons covered by the law without permitting replicas.

"That, I repeat, would be unfair," he said, "and the great mass of Americans like fair play and insist on it. They do not stand for any gag act."

It is, therefore, my considered opinion," which the attorney general of the United States has said, "that all federal employees, from the highest to the lowest, have the right publicly to answer any attack or misrepresentation, provided, of course, they do not make such response as part of active participation in political campaigns."

Provisions of Statute

The new law makes it illegal for any person to intimidate or coerce any other person with the intention of interfering in a national election.

For any person to use authority as a federal official to interfere with or affect presidential or congressional nominations and elections.

To promise jobs or payment in exchange for votes.

To solicit or receive political funds from relief clients.

To furnish for political purposes lists of persons receiving money from the government.

The measure was welcomed by its proponents as taking politics out of relief and according a general political handicap.

Senator Hatch who led the fight for the legislation said:

"My hope is that the elimination of patronage appointees from political activities will lead to a greater interest and to more activity in the entire political field by the great mass of American citizens generally."

Tell Congress Why

Taking the unusual step of informing congress why he had approved the measure, the President said questions of constitutionality had been resolved in favor of the bill.

Mr. Roosevelt pointed to many of the broad provisions of the measure as involving difficulty of interpretation, but said:

"It is because for so many years I have striven in public life and in private life for decency in political campaigns, both on the part of government servants of candidates, of newspapers and of corporations and of individuals that I regard this new legislation as at least a step in the right direction."

The act, sought by Senator Hatch (D-N.M.) for nearly two years, prohibits all federal job holders except policy-making officials from participating in politics in any way except to vote, on threat of removal from office. This will apply particularly to United States attorneys, marshals, collectors and revenue collectors, who in the past have been delegates to presidential nominating conventions.

Among other things, the sweeping measure also forbids solicitation of campaign contributions from persons on relief and prohibits use of relief funds to influence persons in voting.

Violators could be fined $1,000 and imprisoned for a year. Cabinet officers and other policy-making officials, as well as members and employees of congress are exempted from the measure.

Speak to Remain.

The President said he was confident "the purpose of the proponents of this legislation" was that the new law be administered so that "the right of free speech will remain, even to those who

LARGE CROWDS ARE ATTENDING REVIVAL MEETING IN FROST

CENTURY OF PROGRESS BROUGHT TO MIND BY DROPPING OF WELLS FARGO AND CO. FROM STOCK LIST

Perhaps the largest crowds to attend a revival in Frost for the past several years are attending the Methodist meeting which is in progress at this time. The meeting, which is being held under a large tent located on the church lawn, started last Sunday, and will continue for the duration of two weeks. People are attending from Mertens, Blooming Grove, Corrigan, Purdon, Ralston, Slay, Brushy Prairie, Dresden, Alliance Hall, McCord, Jones Ranch, Barry and other communities.

The town of Frost is responding in a wonderful way. Many of the business men have started to close their stores in order to attend the morning services.

Rev. C. A. Calhoun, of Waco, is doing the preaching. Carl and Jenny Young are directing the music. Services are held each day at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. The pastor, Rev. W. V. Bane, extends a cordial invitation to all to attend this meeting—Reporter.

serve their government; and that the government itself shall have full right to place all facts in its possession before the public."

"If some future administration should undertake to administer this legislation to the detriment of these rights," he said, "such action would be contrary to the spirit of the act itself, and might well infringe the constitutional rights of citizens. I trust that public vigilance will for all time prevent this."

The President said Attorney General Murphy had called his attention to a practical difficulty "which should be corrected by additional legislation as soon as possible."

"For many years," the message said, "there has been an exception to the civil service regulation that employees permanently residing in the District of Columbia or in municipalities adjacent thereto may become candidates for or hold municipal office in their municipalities. This and a few similar exceptions should, I believe, be maintained."

Doesn't Go Far Enough.

"The other question," Mr. Roosevelt continued, "relates to the fact that the bill does not in any way cover the multitude of state and local employees who equally outnumber federal employees and whom may continue to take part in elections in which there are candidates for federal office on the same ballot with candidates for state and local office."

"It is held by many who have examined the constitutional question that because the congress, under the constitution, may maintain the integrity of federal elections, it has the power to extend the objectives of this bill so as to cover state and local government employees who participate actively in federal elections."

"This is at least worth the study of the congress at its next session and therefore before the next federal election."

The President explained the reason he was sending a messenger making "certain observations" was because there had been "so many misrepresentations, some unpremeditated, some deliberate," in regard to his attitude in the bill.

Administration of Legislation.

He said the genesis of the legislation lay in his relief message of January 5, 1939, in which he expressed belief "improper political practices can be eliminated only by the imposition of rigid statutory regulations and penalties by the congress, and that this should be done."

Furthermore, he added, the Hatch bill, in applying to all except a few employees, the rules to which civil service employees have been subject for many years, is in harmony with the policy that I have consistently advocated during all my public life, namely, the wider extension of civil service as opposed to its curtailment."

"It has been currently suggested," he said, "that partisan political reasons have entered largely into the passage of the bill; but with this I am not concerned, because it is my hope that if properly administered the measure can be made an effective instrument of good government."

Opinions Differ On
Third Term Question

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(P)—Some republican and democratic senators differed today over whether President Roosevelt's approval of the Hatch politics bill had any significant bearing on the third term question.

Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) said the president's action "is the first definite indication Mr. Roosevelt will not be a candidate for a third term."

Senator Murray (D-Mont.) an administration supporter, asserted he did not believe the act would have any effect on a third term movement. He added support of federal office holders would make little difference to such a movement.

Senator King (D-Utah) an administration critic, expressed the opinion the new law would obstruct a third-term drive.

"To me so, anyway," he said. "Too often have persons holding government positions controlled party nominations."

"Very gratifying" was the comment of Senator Sheppard (D-Tex.) on the signing of the bill. Shepard headed an investigation into politics in relief last year which gave much impetus to the demand for the legislation.

Massachusetts Labor Commissioner James T. Moriarty said an official of the Barre Wool Combining company was attempting to arrange a conference to settle a 10-day labor dispute at its South Barre plant. Police were rushed to the strike scene Monday night to end fist fighting.

Police Drive CIO Auto Workers Away

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—(P)—Police drove CIO United Automobile Workers Union members and sympathizers away from the area surrounding the strikebound General Motors Chevrolet plant today after what they said was a second attempt to stop factory automobile traffic by spreading tacks and broken glass on the streets.

The unionists retreated and booted the several hundred Detroit police.

The future of proration in the vast East Texas field is blurred.

The state railroad commission's trouble in that sector began with a decision by Federal District Judge R. J. McMillan of San Antonio in the Rowan and Nichols case. While the commission has not yet altered its policies as a consequence of that decision ten companies, including several of the larger operators, are clamoring for it to do so.

The Humble company, largest producer in the field, went into federal court in a direct attempt to obtain greater production allowance, as applicable but one to the Humble company, which wants 17,000 more barrels of oil production each day, high unequal.

The revived possibility of federal oil control precipitated considerable discussion in the industry. Two men, Abraham Schwartz, 33, and Elery Fowell, 33, were arrested. Patrolmen Edsel O'Brien and Paul Clor said the two had driven truck through the area, scattering large roofing tacks on the pavement. They said they were menaced by a large crowd of men who threatened to take the prisoners away from them until 30 more policemen arrived.

Meanwhile, George Gooze, AFL-CIO representative, charged in 12 General Motors plants was an effort to force building trades workers out of the American Federation of Labor into the CIO's new United Construction Workers Organizing Committee.

May Settle Strike

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—(P)—Prospects for settling the strike of General Motors skilled workers were reported today to be the best they have been since walkout of 7,500 workers in 12 plants began July 5.

"There just wasn't anything else I could do," said Dr. Fisher, moderately, today as he discussed the case.

Once Fisher had called his oxygen was the nearest of any kind within 75 miles. The closest hospitals are at Texarkana and Paris, Tex., and we certainly didn't have time to take the bables there.

"The youngsters, (he calls them Red and Black, for no reason at all) will come along all right now, I guess, but even after we had this thing rigged up they nearly died. A couple of times we had to put the tubes clear through their nostrils, directly into their lungs."

Arrangements have been completed and a definite date, August 14, has been set for the beginning of the district ASA Softball Tournament to be played on the local field with nine counties competing, according to J. D. Richardson, AAU softball commissioner. All teams are urged to mail entrance fees to the Corsicana YMCA as soon as possible. Entrance fees have been reduced from $5 to $3 and all gate receipts will be used to defray expenses of the winner of the tournament to the state meet to be held August 13 at 2 p. m. in the lobby of the YMCA.
